The BWC Founders Fund utilizes a robust, multi-factor, systematic portfolio of strategies designed to generate superior risk-adjusted returns across diverse market cycles. We deploy multi-asset, long/short trading primarily across U.S. and global equities, while maintaining tactical allocations to volatility products, commodities, bonds, currencies, and cryptocurrency ETFs. Our objective is clear: to consistently outperform the S&P 500 Total Return Index while diligently managing downside risk.

Our proprietary system is powered by three core quantitative factors: Momentum, Asset Correlation, and Mean Reversion. This data-driven, factor-based approach creates a dynamic and non-discretionary structure designed to capture alpha while mitigating behavioral risk.
